

Tuesday, May 31, 2005

08:30-10:00	Judging the Past Chair: Prof. S. Glick Dr. Susan Bachrach Confronting History: An Exhibition on Nazi Eugenics and Visitor Responses Prof. M.G. Angelou Scientific Research and Experimentation on Human Beings during the Byzantine Medicine Prof. S. Glick Judging the Past: An Exchange of Letters about Human Experimentation in the Mid-20 th Century	Safdia Auditorium Multi-Purpose Building
10:00-11:30	Ethical Codes: WWII Onwards Chair: Prof. H. Ten Have Prof. R. Slovenko The Evolution of Standards for Experimental Treatment or Research Dr. T. Ghebrehwet 50 Years of the ICN Code of Ethics for Nurses Prof. H. Ten Have UNESCO and Ethics	Safdia Auditorium Multi-Purpose Building
11:30-13:00	Research and Psychiatry (I) Chair: Prof. M. Cosyns Safdia Auditorium Dr. Y. Melamed Placebo Controlled Trials in Schizophrenia Adv. O. Asman Research on the Mentally Deficient - Is Everything Clear? Prof. M. Cosyns Ethics of Involuntary Treatment in Psychiatry: The Challenges for the Future	Educational Imperatives: Lessons from the Holocaust for Health Professionals Chair: Dr. S. Reis Room 5007 Rabin Complex Dr. T. Chelouche Jewish Medical Resistance and Research during the Holocaust Prof. T. Alfonso Can Education in Bioethics Ignore the Holocaust? Dr. S. Reis Educational Imperatives: Lessons from the Holocaust for Present and Future Health Professionals
13:00-14:00	Lunch Break

14:00-15:30	Research and Psychiatry (II) Chair: Dr. M. Ammon Dr. S. Lustig Gentle Extermination Dr. R. Strous Hitler's Psychiatrists: Healers and Researchers Turned Executioners Dr. M. Ammon Ethical Needs for Psychotherapeutic Treatment in Psychiatry	Safdia Auditorium Multi-Purpose Building
15:30-17:30	Euthanasia and the Hippocratic Oath Chair: Prof. N. Baumslag Safdia Auditorium Dr. P. Heberer "Through a Glass Darkly": Reflections on the Victims of the Nazi "Euthanasia" (T4) Program Prof. S. Reiter Aktion T-4: The Role of the Medical Profession in the Extermination of Persons with Disabilities: Is the Hippocratic Oath a Matter of Social Ideology or is it a Moral Imperative? Dr. A. Sawada Morals and Mentalities of Accomplices in the Nazi T4 Program - Focusing on Nurses who Assisted Nazi Doctors Prof. N. Baumslag Murderous Medicine and the Hippocratic Oath: From Euthanasia to Extermination	Ethics, Morals and Survival Chair: Dr. J.D. Steinert Room 5007 Rabin Complex Ms. S. Mayer The Beneficence of Luba Bielicka-Blum Dr. C. Ostrower Humor as a Defense Mechanism in the Holocaust Dr. C. Sanchez-Teller Spanish Health Professionals in Nazi Camps Dr. J.D. Steinert British Humanitarian Assistance in Belsen Concentration Camp 1945

Faculty of Law
Research Authority

University of Haifa

The International Center for Health, Law and Ethics
UNESCO Chair in Bioethics

International Conference on

SCIENCE LAW ETHICS

Program & Book of Abstracts

University of Haifa ♦ May 29 - June 2, 2005

World War II and its Impact on Law and Ethics - 60 Years After Medical Research – Human Rights